

London-Paddington

Invite, Inspire, Intrigue

Opening Summer 2008!

London Town Hotels joins hands with the world's largest hotelier, InterContinental Hotels Group to bring their Indigo boutique hotel experience, moments from the Heathrow Express and mainline trains at Paddington, London – central London's largest business hub.

Hotel Indigo is the industry's first "branded boutique" hotel for the lifestyle consumer and combines consistency and trust of a big brand with unique design and service personality of a boutique.

Hotel Indigo London-Paddington is a boutique hotel created for "style-savvy guests" who want affordable luxury with efficient service. Hotel Indigo London-Paddington offers a pleasing alternative to conventional hotels, in an intriguing, warm and inviting environment.

Renewal is the soul of Hotel Indigo London-Paddington's design concept – thoughtful changes that are made throughout the year to keep the hotel fresh - seasonal scented air and music – artwork and communication materials, to provide guest a unique experience with every stay.
